

Naibor

July 2008

Naibor and Little Naibor are in full swing now that tourism is once again flowing into Kenya.

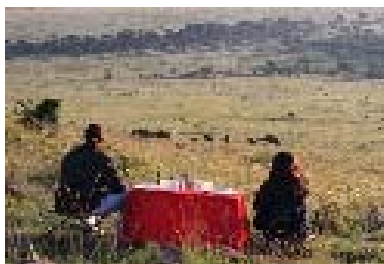

We have had some fantastic game sightings in and around the camp. Our resident Leopard left us a treat behind Little Naibor Suite 2 – a fresh waterbuck kill in a tree! The migration has arrived into the Mara early this year with scores of Wildebeest and Zebra crossing at the Look Out crossing, a most impressive sight! It also seems that mating season is here as our guests have seen mating lions, as well as Ostrich males dancing impressively for the females, and have even been lucky enough to see Leopard mating.

July has seen some unseasonal rains in the Mara - short but heavy evening showers - which now has the area looking green and lush, all the wild ground flowers are in bloom, it is looking beautiful.

Jamie Cocker and Sophie Spyropoulos, the camp managers, have worked tirelessly to have the camp looking stunning. Naibor has also been happy to welcome Ann to look after the Spa. Ann is a Kenyan, trained in Nairobi and has come to join us in the bush. The Spa is offering fabulous treatments, and Ann has been highly praised.

We are looking forward to a busy season at Naibor, and to welcoming all our guests into the Masai Mara.

Don't forget we are keeping our special on - 3 nights for the price of 2 offer - open until July 31st. All rates are available from the office.
